

Report on 2026 summer shootout

Pre shootout chip off.

Players ... Mark Thomsett & Chris Palmer. No show by Matu and Kevan Stewart, Using No18 Green from below bank adjacent to the clean-down station. Chris unable to get over the bank. Mark progresses by virtue of reaching the green.

Hole No1.

David Morris performed the Walk of Shame much to everyone's delight with little to no sympathy. There was hardly a dry eye on the course, as he trudged his way back to the clubhouse. Not that Taff cared as he went on to win an additional $120 in the PM Haggie. Nett 6

Hole No2.

Chris Spiers bid farewell. Tee shot finished up at the the base of a tree on the right-hand side. Refusing advise to take relief and 1 stroke penalty Chris tried to play out with no success. Then decided to take relief. Too late and goodbye. Nett 7

Hole No3.

Chip off between Alex Teabag, Brian Doherty, Big Dave C, Mal Coldicutt, Earle (Top Qualifier) White, The first blemish by the highly regarded Referee placing the chip off markers on the side of right-hand hump. Big Dave C stating in no uncertain terms that he was not happy. Later telling the Ref to go forth and multiply narrowly avoiding a Yellow card in the process. However, it was Brian who bid farewell having failed to reach the green. Nett 5.

Hole No 4.

Second top qualifier Roger Kemp put 2 x fairway wood shots out of bounds. Said goodbye, although he did turn up this year. Nett 9

Hole No 5.

Mal and Damien Dunlop entered a chip. Mal "skulling" his chip and over shot the green. Waved off by the remaining players. Nett 7.

Hole No 6.

Alex T having trouble in the bunker. Progress halted. Nett 7. Little sympathy ala Taff. Not much of story to tell during future rounds of golf.

Hole No 7.

Chip Off between Thommo, Ali Cochrane, Daryll Denyer, Earle, Damien, Thommo just made the green and well short of the others. Nett 6 Not too unhappy as he could now focus on Alistairs full chilly bin whilst riding in the mobile Disco Cart.

Hole No 8.

Bid farewell to Craig Sandy. Decided to land bank the bunker and refused to leave. Nett 8

Hole No 9.

Grant Wenzlick by passed the fairway instead taking the tree lined scenic route. Gone with Nett 8.

Hole No 10.

Earle called it a day after flirting with the rough. Nett 6.

Hole No 11.

Graeme Culton challenged Big Dave to a chip off. Big mistake. DAC progressed. Nett 6

Hole No12.

DAC was gone for all money, with a Net 7. However Damien took sympathy and 4 putted from .5mtr. Nett 9.

Hole No 13.

David Fozzy Foster decided to attack the green from No16 fairway after his Tee shot went array. Finished his participation. Nett 5.

Hole No14.

The final hole for the golf club manager David P. Overshot the green with his 2nd and struggled to get up and down. Nett 7.

Hole No15.

PC Plod Caldwell beat John Tretheway in a 2-player chip off. Nett 4.

Hole No 16.

3 player chip off. Ali, Daryll, DAC.

2nd blemish by the esteemed Referee. Placing the chip off markers on a clump of Paspalum

Ali playing his only poor shot of the day could not make the green hence bid farewell.

Worse was come as Thommo had emptied the chilly bin. Dry ride back to the clubhouse. Nett 5

Hole No 17.

PC Caldwell failed on the putting green to end his day as the other 2 players both made birdie. Nett 5.

Hole No 18.

One hole to go. DAC had a handicap shot whereas Daryll did not.

DAC playing safe and plopping his golf ball up the centre of the fairway and 4th shot finishing less than a metre from the hole. Holing out for a Gross 5 Nett 4.

Daryll displaying too much testosterone, over shot the green with his second or maybe had his mind on the following days Senior pennants. Could not get up and down. Finished Gross 5 Nett 5.

Winner by unanimous and popular decision the last man standing David A. Campbell.
