

The Four Best Ball Trophy – Ludwig 2025

It was down to the final eighteenth hole when John Drent and Alex Standfield took the Ludwig Trophy. The final was a tight affair against Daryll Denyer and Chris Spiers.

This match was a classic “cat and mouse” competition with neither pairing giving much away.

On their way to the final John and Alex first beat Logan Phillips and Sam Cooper. Their semi-final against the tough nuts Campbell and Campbell, not related, went to the nineteenth hole to be decided.

Congratulations Alex and John, “It’s not over until it’s over”.
